Blotter Bingo

Author's Notes:
Probably not true .... but Dave Gilmour ain't talkin' and The Man has his preferred suspect .. so .. Whatevah ...

"Bloody Hell!"

George Martin had been out of the country for a few days. He locked his office, but came back to THIS.

All seemed as he left it at first .. but little clues began to crop up. The overhead projector was not quite where he left it .. and it was turned around backwards. As he resolved that, he discerned a blue butt smooch on the transparency, where musical notes had been obliterated by a damp ass.

Finally .. the blotter on his desk had a once wet dick-shaped mark and splatters.

"I haven't had trouble like this since John Lennon!"
